

Comparing Sample's (1997) Chi-square Stat with What Could Be Expected Under No Association

Our test statistic is a near impossibility if there were truly no differences between groups, per the chi-squared test and distribution.

